This 7-night itinerary is perfect for those who want a core Polynesian experience. The Society Islands are what your daydreams are made of: crystal-clear waters, pristine beaches, and lush mountains that leap almost vertically from turquoise lagoons.

Port Highlights:

Huahine - Discover isolated coves, untouched beaches, enchanted lagoons, killer reef breaks and the most extensive complex of traditional temples (marae) in French Polynesia. Also known as "The Garden Island" due to its lush tropical scenery. This is the home of the famous sacred blue-eyed eels.

Taha'a (Motu Mahana) - An uninhabited islet off the coast of Taha'a, Motu Mahana is Paul Gauguin's exclusive private retreat. Here you are free to do as you please — relax in shade of palm trees on the white sand beach, unwind to the songs of the Les Gauguines, or snorkel the motu's turquoise lagoons, working up an appetite for a delectable al fresco barbecue feast.

Bora Bora - Graced with crystalline aqua lagoons, idyllic white-sand beaches, jagged volcanic peaks, Bora Bora appears like a postcard. Circle the island by jet boat, traverse the interior by off-road safari, dive beneath the surface for a chance to swim with reef fish, moray eels, and lemon sharks, or relax on the exclusive, private beach on a motu just off the island.

Moorea - Rugged peaks, volcanic craters, and lush interiors thick with tropical fruit, fragrant flowers, and forests of gigantic mape, or chestnut trees, make Moorea's mountain scenery nothing short of spectacular. Take an off-road safari, and underwater walk, an ATV tour, a ride on a Catajet — the opportunities for exploration are endless. Or if the mood suits, kick back and enjoy the jaw-dropping scenery.
